

Myanmar's representative on the ASEAN Inter-governmental Commission on Human Rights gave an in-house seminar, organised by the ASEAN Studies Centre, at the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies in Singapore on 19 May 2010. The presentation of Ambassador Kyaw Tint Swe, a career diplomat whose last of many posts in the Myanmar foreign service was as Permanent Representative to the United Nations in New York, stimulated a spirited discussion among the ISEAS scholars present.

