

P.G. Lim

P G Lim is a Cambridge-trained woman lawyer, the first Malaysian female ambassador (1973) to United Nations and subsequently to Belgium. She was the founder member of the Labour Party, active in the union movements which led the way for the wider participation of women in politics. She deposited some of her personal papers with ISEAS on 17 March 2011 and her collection consist of documents, photographs, newspaper articles and books.