

PRIVATE PAPERS
Usage Agreement

The ISEAS Library, ISEAS-Yusof Ishak Institute holds the Private Papers in trust and, by agreement with the donor, imposes the following conditions on all readers who wish to consult the documents:

- 1 That the reader shall not publish any part of the collection or individual document, or publish any information derived there from unless written permission is obtained from the donor and the ISEAS Library acting on behalf of the Donor and the Institute.
- 2 That the reader shall not photocopy and/or photograph any part of the collection or individual documents if written permission is required from the donor. Where no conditions to the contrary are imposed by the owners of the collection, readers may photograph or download digitised copies of the material for personal use only. This material may not be distributed in any form, including uploading onto the internet or any platform that allows its distribution.
- 3 That the reader shall not quote/cite from any part of the papers in the collection if written permission is needed from the donor - for examples, there are cases where the donors of the document have made known that the collection is strictly meant for background research/reading only and prior permission is needed for any citations or quotations by readers.
- 4 That, in the event such permission is granted, the Private Papers and the ISEAS Library be duly acknowledged in the publication of any document in part or in whole, or in any reference made to any information derived there from. The acknowledgement should be prominently displayed or stated as follows:

- 5 That the reader presents two copies of any publication or written work emanating from or associated with the use of these papers, to the ISEAS Library.
