

ASEAN-INDIA DEVELOPMENT PARTNERSHIP PROGRAMME (AIDPP)

An online training and capacity building programme for officials, scholars and practitioners of ASEAN countries and India

16 to 20 August 2021

Asian Confluence, Shillong; ASEAN Studies Centre (ASC) at ISEAS-Yusof Ishak Institute, Singapore; and ASEAN-India Centre (AIC) at RIS, New Delhi announce a week-long online training and capacity building programme entitled "ASEAN-India Development Partnership Programme (AIDPP)" to be held on 16-20 August 2021 in virtual mode.

The course will help equip researchers, practitioners and officials to better understand how to approach the various facets, avenues and mechanisms for enhancing cooperation between ASEAN countries and India. The course will have leading experts from the fields of policy, academia, law and industry to deliver lectures and conduct interactive sessions on various topics and subjects that are critical towards forging mutually beneficial collaborations and larger regional cooperation between ASEAN countries and India.

Who should attend

This programme is tailored for officials, practitioners and representatives from industry associations, researchers and students of international relations, economics and development sciences, who can gain a comprehensive understanding of ways to deepen and diversify the relationship and cooperation between India and ASEAN.

asean india
PROGRESS & PROSPERITY

Outline of the Programme

5
DAYS

DAY
1-2

Geo-political and economic issues

DAY
3-4

Trade, investment and connectivity issues

DAY
5

Socio-cultural issues

Course completion certificate will be provided to each successful participant

